INTRODUCTION

In the summer of 1971 I drove from my home in San Antonio down to McAllen, Texas to pick up my daughter, Sandy. She had been staying with her grandmother that particular summer. Sandy enjoyed being with Mother as much as Mother enjoyed having Sandy there, but Mother's health had deteriorated and she felt too old and too weak to take on the responsibility of this energetic little 13-year old girl.

For a long time I had been wanting to search out Mother's ancestors, the Pattens, but didn't know where to begin. So now that Mother was seventy-seven and looking kind of frail, I decided this would be a good time to inquire about my Patten background.

Mother said, "My Grandfather's name was Tom Patten and he came from an area in Western Indiana. I don't know the exact location, but I remember my father telling me that it was an area somewhere between the cities of Terre Haute and Vincennes."

So upon returning to San Antonio, I began writing the county clerks of the Counties of Vigo, Sullivan and Knox. The Sullivan County Clerk informed me that she was too busy to research her records, but referred me to Harold Johnson. Then through Mr. Johnson, I learned some names. So I sent off a series of letters to Mrs. Worley Johnson, Esther Wible and the Gobles. They each provided little bits of information, enough to show me that I was on the right track; however, they all suggested that the one to contact was Helen Bochner over in Columbus, Ohio.

I wrote Helen and was delighted to receive this package from her which gave Tom's eight brothers and sisters, plus introducing me to the stars of this book, Isaac Patten and Jane Norris. What Helen had done was put together information she had gathered from various sources, and it was all quite interesting and informative.

But still I wasn't 100 percent sure that my Tom Patten was the same as the one she had on her list because the month of his birth was a little bit off. Mother said he was born 22 Dec 1822 while Helen's record showed 22 Oct 1822. Plus, I was disturbed by the fact that Helen had absolutely no information on his wife and children.

Among the material that Helen Bochner provided, I found this intriguing piece of information: "In the early 1700's, a family named Patten of North Irish ancestry, was residing in Connecticut. Three sons of this family left Connecticut and came to Ohio. At least one of the sons settled near what is now the site of Columbus, Ohio. This son and his wife (names unknown at present) had children.

"Two of their names may have been Michael and Alexander Patten, but one name is definitely known. His name was Isaac, who was born in Ohio on November 15, 1787. Isaac Patten married Jane Norris who was born in the vicinity of Columbus, Ohio on June 8, 1791. After the birth of their first child, Miles Norris Patten, they moved to the new State of Indiana in 1818, settling near Farmersburg, Indiana, in Fairbanks Township, Sullivan County, on Government land."

It appeared that this was a story that had been handed down from generation to generation; something that I could rely on as being true. It's almost like a roadmap. It seems like all one would have to do is fill in the names of the little villages along the way. I was surprised that no one had made an attempt to locate the Patten ancestors beyond Isaac and Jane, but apparently no one had.

During this time I was working as a Court Reporter for Federal Judge John H. Wood, Jr. in San Antonio, Texas. We mostly tried cases in San Antonio, Del Rio and El Paso. Once in a while we were invited to try special cases in Jacksonville, Florida and Corpus Christi, Texas.

In March of 1976 we were invited to come down to New Orleans, Louisiana to try a civil case because all of the Federal Judges down there had recused themselves. On the way down, I stopped off at the home of Richard Kirk in Lafayette, Louisiana. Richard is the grandson of Earl Patten, and Earl was a grandson of Isaac and Jane.

Richard had inherited all of Earl's genealogical workpapers. Upon reading Earl's autobiography, I learned that he had been forced to retire at the age of 65 because of his asthma and emphysema. So from 1935 until his death in 1940, Earl devoted a great deal of his time in an attempt to find his Patten ancestors.

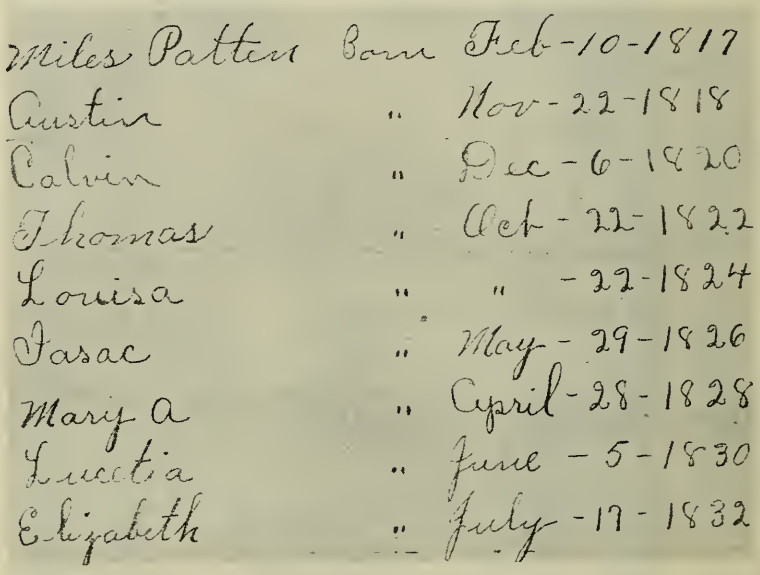
This picture was taken around the year 1935

Up to this moment, I was still harboring a feeling of uncertainty over whether my Tom Patten really belonged to this family, but that doubt quickly vanished when I began examining the large manila envelope that Richard had placed before me.



Miles Patten Born Feb-10-1817
Austin " Nov-22-1818
Calvin " Dec-6-1820
Thomas " Oct-22-1822
Louisa " " -22-1824
Isaac " May-29-1826
Mary A " April-28-1828
Lucetia " June-5-1830
Elizabeth " July-17-1832

The first thing I noticed was a handwritten piece of paper listing the children of Isaac and Jane.

But the real clincher that made it crystal-clear was a sheet of paper showing Isaac and Jane as the founders, eight of their children and 39 of their grandchildren. For some reason he left off Louisa and he erroneously put down 1824 instead of 1822 for Tom Patten.

But it represented a real treasure to me because it listed my grandfather Voorhes. When I seen that I literally shouted for joy because now I had tied it down and knew for certain that I was a member of this family.

Terre Haute, Ind.,
Feb. 13, 1940. E.P.

Among Earl's papers, I found several legal documents, one of which was a Title Bond dated 6 April 1835 from Richard Patton, William Liston and William Patten to Moses Lyons. And the land described was an undivided 3/9ths part of 100 acres, formerely the property of a Thomas Patton, being the Northeast Quarter of Section 34, Township 14 and Range 13, east of the Second Meridian.

Next I found a Letter of Administration to Isaac Patten dated 18 Sep 1847 in which Isaac was appointed Administrator of the Estate of Mary Patton. Mary was Isaac's mother and must have been close to 90 when she died.

Another interesting document was a Certificate of Election dated 6 April 1833, certifying that Isaac Patton had been elected a Fence Viewer.

And then these interesting tax receipts:

Tax receipt of 1820: "Received of Isaac Patton 37 cents in full of his tax for the year 1820. Signed B. Johnson, S.S.C."

Tax receipt of 1834: "November 23, 1834, received of Isaac Patten $5.81 his state and county tax in full for 1833."

Tax receipt of 1847: "Received of Isaac Patten $5.22 for State, County and Road Tax for 1846, SE Quarter 33, Township 9, Range 10 West; and SE Quarter, NE Quarter, Township 9, Range 10 West. Signed J. Gray, Trs."

And there were a bunch of letters that Earl had written to his brothers, nephews and nieces. I extracted the following from a letter he wrote to his brother Jim:

"Terre Haute, Indiana, November 9, 1936. To Mr. James H. Patten, Ames, Iowa. Dear Brother Jim: I have been engaged for the past year or more in gathering data preparatory to writing up the Patten and Pugh family histories. So I am asking you for some information which I will enumerate a little further on. Here are some of the data I have gathered:

"Our great great grandfather was born in the north of Ireland sometime in the early 1700's When grown he came to America and settled in Connecticut where he married and reared a family. Of this family, three sons, after maturity, left there and came into Ohio, settling near where the City of Columbus is. One of these three brothers (whose Christian name I have been unable to learn) was our great grandfather. Here he married and reared quite a family, all the names of which are lacking but one, and his name was Isaac, who was our grandfather, born November 15, 1787.

"He married Jane Norris, a maiden of that vicinity, born June 9, 1791. They, with their young son Miles, born February 18, 1817, came to the then new State of Indiana in 1818, entering land and settling in Sullivan County where they reared the remainder of their family, namely:

"Austin, born November 25, 1818; Calvin, December 6, 1820; Thomas, October 22, 1824; Isaac, May 29, 1826; Mary Ann, April 28, 1828, who married Joseph Sankey; Lucretia, June 5, 1830, who married Samuel Thompson Bryant; and Elizabeth Gardner Patten, born July 17, 1832."

Now from reading this letter, one can justifiably conclude that Earl still had no earthly idea who Isaac's father was. He merely described him as, "One of these three brothers (whose Christian name I have been unable to learn) was our great grandfather." And notice the striking similarity between Earl's description and Helen Bochner's wherein she states, "This son and his wife, (names unknown at present) had children." Both versions look as if they had a common author.

I have many times asked myself, "Didn't Earl wonder who this Thomas and Mary Patten might be, whose names appeared in the legal documents that he had in his possession?" He must have given it some thought. I have searched his letters and papers, but he never once mentions this Thomas and Mary Patten as being his great grandparents. It was always, "Names unknown."

Later that week while attending court in New Orleans, my mind was completely absorbed with my latest discovery. The spirit of Earl must have communicated with my spirit. It was in that hotel room in New Orleans that I made a promise to Earl that I would begin where he left off in 1940 and try to locate Isaac and Jane's ancestors as well as their descendants.

The next major event to unfold in this drama was when I received a book entitled "Descendants of Peter Simmons" in which Gwen Boyer Bjorkman describes a Thomas Patton born between 1750 and 1760 in New Jersey and his wife Mary. They had nine children. Since the publication of her book, she has ruled out New Jersey.

In her book she makes reference to 100 acres of land in Fayette County, Indiana. It bears the same description as the legal documents in Earl's possession. Mrs. Bjorkman was able to trace this family back to Maryland through the census records. Franklin County was created in 1811. So this may be the "Franklin County" that Earl referred to, except it was in Indiana and not Ohio.

So now I felt I had fortunately stumbled onto something of major significance. I had not only discovered Tom's parents (Isaac and Jane), but now I had the names of his grandparents. I had extended my knowledge two more generations since starting out on this venture.

I wrote Mrs. Bjorkman telling her that I felt the Isaac Patten listed in her book was indeed my great great great grandfather. In reply she wrote me, informing me that they just couldn't be the same person because her Pattons had come to Indiana by way of Butler County, Ohio, while that other Patten family had arrived in Indiana by way of Franklin County, Ohio.

I was stunned. I reasoned, "Could there have been two Isaac Pattens living in Sullivan County at the very same time? What a mystery!!! Here were two groups of people, each with more genealogical experience than myself, and I didn't know which way to turn.

I decided to forget about the ancestors for the moment and begin concentrating on the descendants. Perhaps some distant cousin will be able to answer this riddle. Someone out there must have an old family bible that will give us the answer.

So I began sending out letters right and left. People were giving me information as well as supplying me with fresh names and addresses of people who perhaps would know even more. I justified my request for this family data by informing them that I was "writing a book".

It's hard to ask a total stranger facts about when they got married and then request that they hand over a list of their children without some kind of explanation. This formula worked well and I soon became engulfed with new and interesting information from newly-found cousins, second cousins and far distant cousins. In the end I located all 60 grandchildren of Isaac and Jane.

On the next page you will notice the third column has that list of grandchildren and I have numbered them from one through sixty. As the book unfolds, you will notice that each grandchild retains this particular number.

Then 29 May 1979 I was in my office there in San Antonio when Blake Stevens came in and asked, "Have you heard anything more?" I said, "About what?" He said, "Oh, you haven't heard. Judge Wood has been shot." I rushed down to his apartment and found that he had been shot in the back by an assassin and had died instantly. As a result of this tragedy and in order to continue working for the Federal Government, my family and I had to leave San Antonio and move to El Paso.

Work was kind of slow at first, so I put that Patten book together. Advertising in the Genealogical Helper brought national exposure which resulted in a lady from Blythe, California purchasing a copy. Her name was Pearl Norris Hyles. She had looked over my work and then sent me a package of material that cleared away a lot of the cobwebs and confusion.

She informed me that Jane Norris had come from South Carolina -- not Columbus, Ohio. It took some time to convince me because for the last seven years I had been following the wrong rabbit trail. She even sent copies of legal documents to back it up.

Pearl Hyles furnished me selected portions from a book entitled "South Carolina Baptists", and from that I learned that our earliest Norris connection begins with a man named David Spence who was born in 1707 in Ireland. He had a wife named Jannet who was born in 1727.

They had eight children: Margaret Spence, 1743; Mary Spence, 1747; Eleanor Spence, 1750; Agnes Spence, 1751; Robert Spence, 1755, Martha Spence, 1759; Adam Spence, 1765 and Arthur Spence. Pearl says she can't figure out how Arthur fits into the family picture as he was not on the list of immigrants, but yet her book indicates that he received 100 acres of land along with the rest of the children. Her comment: "Maybe he was hiding when they took the roll call."

In 1767 David Spence, his wife Jannet, and their children boarded the ship Earl of Denegal Duncan Ferguson Master and landed in South Carolina. Martha Spence was only eight years old at this time. Seven years later, at the age of 15, 1774, she married William Norris who was 19 or 20 at the time. They had eleven children born to their union.

OTHER MARRIAGES

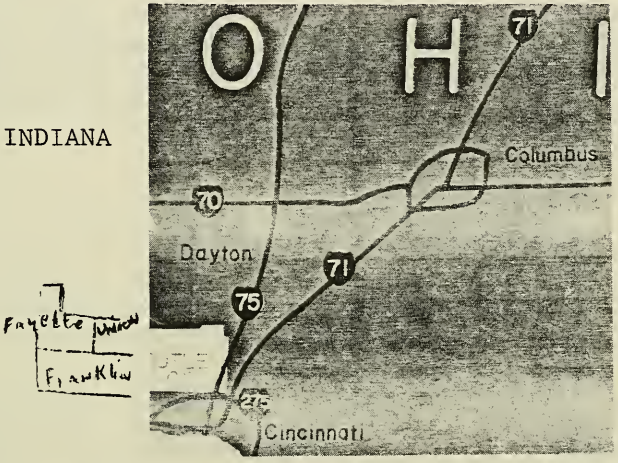
DEED, LAURENS COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA
March 8, 1789

Robert Taylor to John McCalvey, 100 acres situated on the waters of the Saluda, patented to David Spence, August 12, 1768 and then released to William Norris 9 January 1774, and now conveyed by William Norris and Martha, his wife, to Robert Taylor and Agness, his wife.

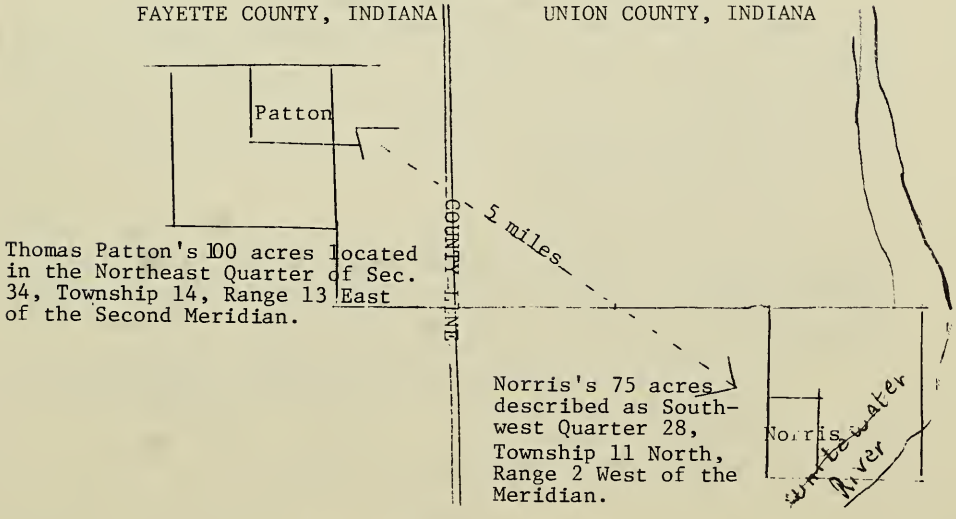
Witnesses: Robert Ross
William Taylor
Isaac Rogers

So the first record we have of this William Norris has him living in Laurens County, South Carolina in 1774. Not only did he get married that year, but he received 100 acres of land as well, This would be two years before the Declaration of Independence. So far we haven't learned whether he served in that war. And if so, on what side.

In 1804, William, Martha and their 11 children left South Carolina and moved to Union County, Indiana. There they purchased 75 acres of land on the banks of the Whitewater River. At this time their daughter Jane Norris was 13 years old.



The little map shows the relative location of Butler County, Ohio and Franklin County, Indiana.



Ten years later, 1814, Thomas and Mary Patton, along with their nine children, came over from Butler County, Ohio and purchased that 100 acres of land in Franklin County, Indiana (now known as Fayette County), which land was only five miles from the Norris farm. It can be safely assumed, because of this close proximity, that Jane Norris and Isaac Patten soon met and became close buddies. Jane was 23 by this time and Isaac was 27. A year later, 2 Nov 1815, this young couple was married in what was then still known as Franklin County, Indiana.

Pearl Hyles located a deed that was dated 9 July 1817 in which William Norris and his wife, Martha, deeded a house and lot situated on the east fork of the Whitewater River in Franklin County, Indiana to William McGreer.

From a careful study of the foregoing, please permit me the liberty of giving my own version of what really happened. And I base it partly on census records and partly on "family tradition."

"In the 1700's a family living in Ulster, Ireland by the name of Patten or Patton decided to immigrate to the new world. Exactly when they arrived on the American continent is unknown at this time. These were some of the early settlers of the American colonies. My Great Great Great Grandfather, Thomas Patton, was born to this family between the years 1750 and 1760.

"Thomas grew up in a period when the American colonies were starting to become restless and somewhat anxious to taste the fruits of independence. When the Revolutionary War broke out in 1776, Thomas was in his 20's and no doubt participated in some way in that war. Around 1780 he married a young lady by the name of Mary or Polly, and her maiden name may have been Wadsworth.

"The custom in those days was that the marriage usually took place in the bride's home. Where they got married is unknown, but it's certain they lived in Maryland from around 1780 to 1790, at least ten years.

"Their first child, William, was born in the early 1780's. In 1784 they had their second son and they named him Richard. According to the 1850 census, Richard gave Maryland as his place of birth. A third son followed, but his name is unknown. Their fourth child was my Great Great Grandfather, Isaac Patten, who was born 15 Nov 1787. He also indicated Maryland as his place of birth on a later census.

"By the year 1790 people were moving westward into the State of Ohio. Thomas, Polly and their four little sons joined thousands of immigrants moving westward, and are listed as some of the early pioneers who settled in the Fairfield Township of Butler County, Ohio. Isaac, being only three or four years old when they made their treacherous journey westward, must have been quite impressed as they traveled along the unimproved roads and trails of that period.

"Their fifth child was a girl. Nancy was born 27 Feb 1792 in Butler County, Ohio. They had four more children after this: John, Polly, Rachel and Elizabeth."

From a reading of my little outline up to this point, you have no doubt gathered that this Mr. Swanson is sure not a professional genealogist. If that's what you're thinking, you are absolutely correct. My only claim to fame is my ability to organize little bits and pieces of information into a somewhat comprehensive and hopefully understandable form.

The key to my system is quite simple. I have numbered the grandchildren of Isaac and Jane from 1 through 60. Then the offspring of these 60 individuals are represented with small-cased letters. Next is the small roman numeral. Next are large-cased letters. Next are double lower-cased letters. And finally arabic numbers surrounded with a parenthesis. To give you an example of what I'm talking about, I'll demonstrate it by using my own family.

27. Lorenzo Vorhees Patten.
c. Edna Isabell Patten.
ii. Ernest C. Swanson.
A. Sandra Denise Swanson.
aa. Crystal Marie Bentley.
(1)

So at a glance you can easily determine that Crystal is a great great granddaughter of Lorenzo Patten.

In conclusion, I would like to present this book to my children and to your children as an aid to them so that when they reach that point in life that they begin to get interested in their family tree, it will be there for them. On the Patten line at least, they won't have to go through the trauma that I experienced. And I certainly want to thank all of those who have contributed so generously to this book.

And while we're at it, let's all thank our forefathers for the work and sacrifice that they have expended on our behalf. What we are today, the success we have achieved, we owe in large measure to those who preceded us on this stage, who laid firm foundations and corner-stones upon which we all can enjoy life in this country. They weren't afraid to venture out and take their chances on the wild frontier in their life-and-death struggles.

How interesting it would be if they had kept a journal of their day-to-day activities, as they grubbed out the trees and brush, their dangerous encounters with the Indians and their struggle to keep the newborn infants alive. It would be interesting if they could share with us their joys and sorrows as they worked to provide for their large families.

SPECIAL BULLETIN

Here is a late-breaking development. Gwen Bjorkman has provided us with a document entitled, "Application of Thomas Patton, an Application for a Pension." It is located in Civil Order Book C, pages 50 and 51, Fayette County, Ind. and is dated 7 June 1832. I will quote from said document:

"Comes now into open Court Thomas Patton, an applicant for a pension under the Act of Congress of June 7, 1832, and the said Thomas Patton having made oath to his declarations, and the Court hearing Edward Samuel Bell, Lewis Noble, Ephraim Mills, H. G. Latimer, O. H. Smith and Samuel C. Samples on oath touching their knowledge of the said Thomas Patton for truth and veracity regarding their opinion of his having been a soldier in the revolution and having propounded to the said Thomas Patton the interrogatories above prescribed by the War Department,

"ORDER: The following certificate to be placed upon the records, and the said Court hereby declares this opinion after the investigation of the matter, and after propounding the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department, that the above-named applicant was a Revolutionary Soldier and served as he states."

So this is good news to all of us who desire to join the SAR or the DAR, because with this definite proof of his service in that war, we, his descendants are entitled to membership to these patriotic organizations.

Preliminary evidence indicates that he entered service in Maryland. There was a Thomas Patton living in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, but for the present, we don't know whether this is our Thomas Patton or not.

CHAPTER I.

MILES NORRIS PATTEN. Miles was born 10 Feb 1817 in the Jennings Township, Franklin County, Indiana. He married Elizabeth Bundy 1 Sep 1836. The Bundy's were early settlers from England, first settling in Virginia, then immigrating to Kentucky, and then years later, to Southern Indiana. We learn from family tradition that this early pioneer family had contact with Pocahontes and her people. Elizabeth Bundy's parents were Quakers in South Carolina. Her father was an overseer of a plantation, having about 100 slaves. He quit the job because he didn't believe in slavery. Elizabeth was born 28 Jan 1819.

OTHER MARRIAGES #4. (2) marriage to Lucy Clark Hopewell 15 Nov 1831

©1972 The Genealogical Society of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Inc

Elizabeth Bundy was born in Randolph County, South Carolina 28 January 1818 or 1819. Her parents moved to Washington County, Indiana in 1828. And then from there, in 1831, they moved to Sullivan County. In 1840, Elizabeth and her husband, Miles, were members of the Baptist Church. Afterwards, they joined the Church of Christ at Pleasant Green. They moved their membership to Concord in 1869, and then to the Liberty Church of Christ in 1894. They remained married for 60 years!!!

Miles died on 3 July 1896 and Elizabeth died 14 Dec 1903 in the Curry Township, Sullivan County, at the age of 85. The cause of her death was aortic stenosis.

One of their granddaughters, Jessie Stark Tichenor, wrote a book entitled A Hundred Times, and in it she describes her grandparents, Miles and Elizabeth Patten:

"GRANDPARENTS.

"I wish you could have known my grandparents. They were such interesting people, and all quite different. It was a great treat when we piled into the wagon and went to visit our grandparents -- to stay overnight, of course!

"Grandfather Patten built his home in the middle of his farm of rich black soil. You had to open a gate and drive down his own private lane, where the corn grew so tall that you couldn't be seen until you almost came to the house. No matter, for unexpected company was no danger of finding an empty larder there. It was a household of peace and plenty.

"Grandfather was like one of his own beech trees. Do you know how they grow, their branches bent slightly downward, like protecting arms? Grandfather tried to protect all around him -- not only his family, but his livestock as well. There were sheds all around his barn, a protection for his sheep in winter, and there were always pigeons cooing and muttering from the roof.

"Grandfather's hair was smooth and dark (it never turned gray) and he wore it in sort of a long bob. He was the soul of gentleness and dignity. He always called Grandmother, 'Elizabeth', -- not 'Lib' as others did. His children all had long names, and that was what he called them -- he never recognized a nickname. He loved to take us for walks around the farm and show us all the animals. There was always a gentle horse that we could ride while he walked solemnly beside us. If he was ever impatient, I never saw him so.

"Grandmother loved to have us come. She outdid herself in the kitchen. Never elsewhere have I seen such fluffy, flakey biscuits. Her milkhouse was her pride, and she kept its brick floor scrubbed to its brightest red. The crocks of milk stood in a long trough of water, pumped fresh many times a day from the wooden pump in the center of the room. We loved the coolness of this room, and the rich milk which she ladled from the crocks. But most of all, we loved Grandmother's songs and stories, with which she was generous.

"Nineteen and eighteen they were when they set up housekeeping here on this very farm, though of course the house and barns and acres had increased meanwhile for they had prospered. Their honeymoon house, though scantily furnished, was a happy place, for they always worked together, and Grandmother's heart was so light that she was always singing. One day Grandfather said, 'Elizabeth, that was such a pretty song you sang while we were milking; I wish you would sing it for me again.' 'I can't, Miles,' she said, 'I was just making it up as I went along.'

"When we visited at Grandfather Patten's, that meant visiting Uncle Billy, Aunt Lizzie and Cousin Elma, for their house was nearby, and we dearly loved them all. Uncle Billy was the baby of the family, and Grandmother was mighty glad when he settled down, as he had worried her with his reckless horseback riding. She even found him riding while walking in his sleep, his saddle perched perilously in an upstairs window.

"No matter how many were in Grandmother's household or how late we sat up to talk and to sing, there was never any question as to who would be the last one to go to bed--she would! Then was her house her own, and she set it completely to rights and to her liking. Then she wound the clock, swept the hearth, put in order the clothes of the careless ones, shoes with their proper mates, tucked the covers around us. All this must be done before she would call it a day. You might be careless the first time, but the next time you remembered to fold your clothes neatly as Grandmother did, and you would be sure she would notice and praise you for it."

On their tombstone can be found the following verse:

"They are waiting for us in the Glorious Edenland which lies
Beyond the sunset of life.
There is no death, no darkness,
No tears in that bright world
Where the rightous dwell."

Miles and Elizabeth had nine children:

In the spring of 1866 he purchased 20 acres of land which he farmed for three years and then sold. With the proceeds of that sale, he purchased 40 acres. After ten years he sold this land and bought 160 acres in the Curry Township which he owned and lived on until his death in 1924. Milt and Annie had four children, Luther, Della, Ora and Anna.

After Annie died 25 Apr 1880, being only 32 years old and buried at the Pogue Cemetery, Milton then married (2) Lucy Mariah Clark Hopewell 15 Nov 1881. She was the widow of Sedley Hopewell.

Sedley Marion Hopewell was born 13 Nov 1829 and was the s/o Henry Hopewell and Mary All and the gs/o John Hopewell and Keziah. Sedley had married (1) Eliza Osborn who died in childbirth 28 Mar 1865 being only 19Y, 7M and 1D. Her infant child died 7 days later, 4 April 1865. Sedley then married (2) Lucy Marie Clark and they had two children, Arthur and Nancy Marie "Nannie" Hopewell.

When Sedley expired and Lucy married Milton Patten, this family already had six children. Lucy and Milt had a boy named Willie, and then there were seven.

The children of Milton Patten and his first wife, Annie Dilley were:

a. Luther Patten was born 28 Oct 1866 in Fairbanks. He became a prominent farmer in the Curry Twp. He md. his step-sister, Nancy Maria "Nannie" Hopewell 19 Feb 1888. After a few years, Luther built a house on 40 acres of land that belonged to his wife, Nancy, and they were there for ten years. In 1904 this property sold and he bought his homestead of 100 acres located three miles southwest of Farmersburg. He continued buying land until his estate contained 126 acres. Luther did general farming and stock raising. They were members of the Liberty Church of Christ. Nancy was the d/o Lucy Marie Clark and Sedley Marion Hopewell. She died February 1938 and Luther died in 1945. 6. Malinda Patten was born 5 Oct 1850 in Farmersburg. She md Albert Wesley Anderson 28 Oct 1869. He was born 22 Mar 1850 and was the s/o Robert Anderson and Nancy.

   Lorene Anderson made this comment about her grandmother: "I believe the most favorite person in my life has been my Great Grandmother Malinda Patten Anderson. I loved her so much and I spent a lot of time with her. And believe me, I still miss her even today. Malinda was a tall woman. She always wore long black and white print dresses, high neck, long sleeves. And she always had a jar full of cookies."

   Albert Wesley died 22 Feb 1922 and Malinda died 14 Dec 1935. They are both buried at the Westlawn Cemetery.

a. Commodore Perry Anderson born 21 Nov 1870. He md (1) Ora Blanche Hornbeck Jan 1890. She was born in Union County, Ohio 6 Dec 1871 and was the d/o S. Alexander Hornbeck (1847-1925). They had four children, Hazel, Guy, Dewey and Max.

Ora suffered from asthma and felt if she could move to another climate, her congestion would be relieved. However her husband, Commodore insisted on staying right there in Indiana. As a result of this conflict, divorce proceedings were begun and a big court fight ensued over custody of the children. In the end, Commodore won. He had a large house, a cattle ranch and was very well to do, so he gave Ora $10,000.

With this money, Ora moved to Canton, Miss., a railroad center, and purchased a rooming house. She then married one of her boarders, a barber, John Mason. Guy, Dewey and Max would spend their summers there in Mississippi. Ora's asthma wasn't getting any better so she and John moved to San Antonio, Texas. Her three boys weren't permitted to visit them in Texas. Ora died of a stroke in San Antonio 20 Feb 1929 and is buried at the Mission Burial Cemetery next to her father, Alexander Hornbeck and her second husband, John Mason, who died 28 Oct 1945.

Now, let's back up for a moment and see what happened to Commodore. He married (2) Zona McDaniel 12 Aug 1905. Zona was born 22 May 1883 and is the d/o Franklin McDaniel and Zerilda A. Lloyd and the gd/o John Graham Lloyd and Elizabeth Chowning. Zona had previously been married to a Mr. Dix and had a son named Eugene Dix. He apparently went to live with his father after his parents divorced. Zona and Commodore had a son named Albert Wesley Anderson. Commodore died 21 Oct 1923.

Upon the death of her husband in 1923, Zona deeded all of the property to her third husband, Broadhurst, and then he turned around and deeded it back to her, thus cutting Dewey and Guy out. Max had died earlier on a visit to Miss. and is buried at Canton. The estate was handled under the guardianship of William E. Patten, and passed to her son Albert Wesley Anderson when he reached maturity. There was enough money left for Albert to buy a farm, a truck and some animals. Zona died in 1929.

Sarah was born 26 Feb 1874 and died 8 Aug 1958. Dewey died of a stroke and heart failure 4 Dec 1968 and is buried at the Westlawn Cemetery beside his father. Luraetta died 13 Nov 1973 from cancer of the colon and is buried there also.

In the 1930's, Dewey, along with his family, went down to Canton, Miss. to look up the grave of his brother, Max. He went into the post office to inquire where the cemetery was, and a man came up and stuck a gun in the back of his head. He told Dewey he would have been dead if he had seen a mark on his face. He remarked that there was a marked similarity between him and John Dillinger, the outlaw. He was apologetic and personally took the family out to the cemetery.

Dewey plowed up the land and put in the streets at Randolph Field at San Antonio, Texas. He was the first civilian hired there. He became foreman of the tractor and lawn mower department at that Field.

Wedding picture of Clyde and Cora 1 April 1908

At this time I think it would be appropriate to copy this poem that Clyde enjoyed and which he often recited during his lifetime. It's called "A Psalm of Life" by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow:

What the young man said to the psalmist:

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
  Life is but an empty dream!--
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
  And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
  And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
  Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
  Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
  Find us farther than today.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
  And our hearts, though stout and brace,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
  Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle,
  In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
  Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, howe'er pleasant!
  Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,--act in the living Present!
  Heart within, and God o'erhead!

Lives of great men all remind us
  We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
  Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints, that perhaps another,
  Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
  Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

f. Jessie Stark born 6 Nov 1885 in Vigo County. She md. Charles Webb Tichenor 18 Dec 1915. He was born 13 July 1879. Jessie and Charles had four children and they enjoyed hearing Jessie tell stories about her childhood and the way things were in the olden days. Jessie was an expert story-teller and they would say, "Tell it again, just one more time." Jessie would reply, "I've told this story a hundred times." So Jessie decided to put it all down in writing, into a book, and she entitled it A HUNDRED TIMES. Her daughter Amanda had this to say about her mother:

"Jessie Tichenor graduated from her full life on earth 2 April 1973. She was able to live independently and to give others fully as much as they could give to her until the very end, having felt 'puny' for the proceding two or three weeks. She became ill the day before her death and spent her last hours in the home of her grandson Eddie and his wife Gail. She died about 6:30 a.m. in bed, having been up shortly before.

"We are very grateful that she experienced a long life as a wonderful gift of God and knew much joy. And as said in one of her poems:

"The road to Happiness?
I did not know or care,
For here I found the needy
And I had much to share.

"'To the end of this road I'll follow,'
I promised, 'wheresoe'er
It leads', and then I saw
That Happiness was there."

9. William Erastus (Billy) Patten was born 4 April 1860 in Farmersburg. Jessie Tichenor wrote this about him: "When we visited at Grandfather Patten's, that meant visiting Uncle Billy, Aunt Lizzie and Cousin Elma, for their house was nearby, and we dearly loved them all. Uncle Billy was the baby of the family and Grandmother was mighty glad when he settled down, as he had worried her with his reckless horseback riding. She even found him riding while walking in his sleep, his saddle perched perilously in an upstairs window."

Earl Patten had this to say about Billy back in 1936: "Billy Patten, 80 years old, is still hunting a fresh nip now and then. He says the Pattens are noted for liking pretty women and good liquor."

Billy married Mary Elizabeth (Lizzy) Gaskins 26 Oct 1882. She was born 1 Dec 1862. Uncle Billy drank a pint of whisky every day, but was never drunk.Everyone said he was going to drink himself to death, but he outlived them all. He was a tall, thin man, being 7 foot 1 inch tall. He and Lizzy were farmers and lived in the country. However, he wasn't considered the pilar of the community. The best thing he had going for him was the sweetest wife in the world, Aunt Lizzy. He was known as a drinker and was rolled on occasion in different local bars.

He was also a manipulator of other people's money. He bought almost a whole city block in Farmersburg. He never worked and had a farm that really was that productive; a few cows and some chickens. Everyone loved Uncle Billy, but knew him well. Aunt Lizzie died 24 Sep 1944, being 82; while Uncle Billy went on and lived to be nearly 96 years of age. He died 13 Mar 1956.

Maude Patten (22-c) of Assumption, Illinois, made the positive statement that Thomas Patten and Mary are buried at the Assumption Cemetery. However, the funeral home that's in charge of said cemetery do not confirm this, explaining that their names do not appear on their list.

Thomas died 20 Nov 1886 and his wife Mary died 21 Feb 1899.

When he landed in New Orleans, he possessed only one cent, and that he threw into the Gulf of Mexico. So he stepped onto American soil entirely destitute and without even so much as a knowledge of the English language.

At the time of his death, he was possessed with considerable property which he had acquired through hard work and the practice of economy. For a short time, Mr. Deng worked in New Orleans at his trade. He then moved to Vandalia, Ill. There he married Lydia Schilling, and to this union, four children were born, Bert, Roy, May and Delia. They lived there for a number of years before moving to Scott City in 1885. There they settled on homestead land. Many of the homesteaders were starved out, but Mr. Deng was determined to win. Three times a week he drove a distance of nine miles into town to work in the shoe-cobbling business. In this manner he was able to retain his homestead.

His wife, Lydia, died 28 Dec 1892. Charles then md Isa M. Harris there in Scott City 14 July 1895, and to this union, two children were born, Elsie and Clarice. They moved to Fowler, Colorado in 1918. Charles died in 1934 and Isa May died 15 Feb 1942 in Fowler.

A family reunion, probably in Scott City, Kansas in 1905. Only the ones standing can be identified.

1. Susan Bullington
2. William Patten
3 & 4. Sally Patten and her look-alike cousin.Alwilda.
5. Charles Deng
6. Isa Harris Deng
7. Albert Edgar Harris
8. Mary Ann Reulecke.
9. Lorenzo Vorhees Patten.

A friendship grew out of that reunion between Elsie Deng and her cousin Edna Patten. At that time Edna was 11 and Elsie was 9. This is a photograph from a postcard that Elsie sent Edna in about 1912. Elsie would be 16 and her sister Clarice, six. The postcard reads:

"Miss Edna Patten
Patoka, Illinois:

"Dear Edna: Excuse me for not writing you a line before now, but I thought I would send you a picture of me and my sister. It is just fine of both of us. What have you been doing with yourself? I have fun. Pretty busy this week. Would love to see you. Goodby. From Elsie Deng."

Jonah's marriage (4) to our Sallie Jane Patten was 31 Aug 1879. They had three girls:

I. Alwilda M. Harris born 29 June 1880 in Fairbanks. She died 19 April 1892 in Scott City, Kansas.
J. Carrie Harris born 7 Jan 1883 in Fairbanks and died 30 July 1903 in Scott City.
K. Lula Bell Harris born 6 Aug 1886 in Walton, Kansas and died 28 Dec 1910 in Scott City, Kansas.

The following is a little biography on the life of Sallie Jane Harris:

After Sallie and Jonah had their first two children, they decided to move out to Kansas. So in the spring of 1886, Jonah, Sallie Jane, their two little girls plus Jonah's five children, left Indiana and headed for the plains of Kansas. They got as far as Walton, Kansas where they deemed it wise to stop for a short period as Sallie Jane was at that time carrying their third child, Lula Bell, who was delivered 6 Aug 1886 in that town.

Jonah knew the cabinet-making trade, so he had little difficulty finding work to see his family through the winter. His eldest son, Clement Laird, who was 24, started working for the railroad there in Walton. He learned telegraphy and station work and spent the remaining few years of his life working for the Santa Fe Railroad.

When the family left Walton in the spring of 1887 for Scott City, Clement stayed on and continued working for the railroad. He was stationed at Belpre, Spearville, and was at Rush Center, Kansas when he died of nephritis 29 Oct 1900, following an attack of the mumps.

Upon arriving in Scott City, Jonah filed on a homestead north and west of Scott City on Beaver Creek. He soon moved to Scott City to resume his trade as a cabinet-maker.

April 19, 1892, their oldest daughter, Alwilda, died of scarlet fever. The newspaper mentioned that there were numerous cases of the disease that proved fatal.

When Grover Cleveland was elected President, Jonah, being a lifelong Democrat, was appointed to the position of Postmaster. He efficiently served in that capacity for three years until his death from typhoid pneumonia 7 Sep 1896 at the young age of 54. Funeral services were held at the Christian Church. The attendance was very large from both city and county. He had been sick for about three weeks, but not until the last few days did any of his friends believe that the end might be near at hand.

Mr. Harris was highly esteemed in his community and was prominently identified with the best interests of the county. He was a faithful member of the First Christian Church of Scott City. He built the pulpit which is still in use in the Fellowship Hall at the church.

Upon Jonah's death, Sallie served for a time as the postmistress. Then in 1902 and again in 1904 she was elected the Register of Deeds for Scott County.

Then tragedy struck the third time. Carrie at the age of 20 fell to a case of what was called the black measles. The epidemic was severe in Scott County.

The Jonah Harris family about a year after Alwilda died

Lulu was their youngest daughter and an accomplished musician. She spent one winter studying at the Depauw University in Indiana. She taught piano and served in the First Christian Church as their organist and pianist. Then at the age of 24, after a lingering illness of three months' duration, she fell asleep at her home in Scott City. Her death was not only a crushing blow to her aged mother, to whom she was a comfort and a stay, but was a distinct loss to the whole community, and especially to her church. She was baptized by Elder Neese at Bow Creek at the age of 15 and was a consecrated worker ever since.

Sallie Jane Harris always sat erect. She always made you feel real special. She had a sweet nature and was willing to help anyone in need. Her tombstone bears the simple inscription MOTHER. It was selected and placed there by her two living step-children, Isa Mae Deng and Chauncy Harris.

Sallie Jane, better known as "Grandma Harris" died 2 Feb 1931 at Scott City, age 81Y 28D. She died in a local hospital.

FUNERAL SERVICES

at Christian Church, Wednesday, February 4

2:00 o'clock p. m.

Although she had been in poor health for a few days, death was said to have been due to a fall just a few days before while visiting her son, Chauncy, in Amity, Colorado, at which time she fractured a hip bone.

Her funeral services were held at the Christian Church where she had been a member for 40 years, having joined in 1891. And as long as health would permit, she was one of its most faithful members. Sallie Jane was always active among the affairs of the community, and her children were reared in a similar fashion, all of them being active. She was survived (among others) by L. R. Patten of Tower Hill, Ill and L. V. Patten of Patoka, Illinois.

    Reulecke was always hard to pronounce, so everyone called them "the Rolligers" I never knew Grandmother Mary Ann Reulecke because she died five years before I was born. But from her picture I know she must have been a pretty special person. I have traced her ancestors back to a village in Germany called Sohlde. Back in those days the people generally stayed in the same village from one generation to the next. So Mary Ann's great great great grandfather Curb Rauleke moved to Sohlde, Germany around the year 1720. It went like this:

I was only six years old, but I remember well that time in 1936 when Grandfather Patten visited our farm near Spade, Texas. He loved mother's canned tomatoes. In fact, that about the only thing he ate while he was there. He had a problem with his eyes, because I remember once or twice each day he would lie down on the floor so that Mother could apply eyedrops to his eyes. And boy was he a tall man!!! I never realized how tall he really was until I saw him stretched out on the floor, and then it seemed like he extended from one side of the room clear to the other side.

One day I was in the living room looking out the west window when I noticed a cotton tail rabbit hopping around out in the yard. I mentioned this to Grandfather. Immediately he ran to the window, stuck the barrel of his gun out through a broken windowpane and fired. I didn't know rabbit tasted so good.

Grandfather Patten was a little hard of hearing. He hadn't been back to Patoka, Illinois but just a short while when he stepped around the corner of the depot building right into the path of an oncoming train and was killed instantly. He apparently hadn't heard the train coming. It happened 7 Jan 1936.

From 1905 to 1910 the Swansons and the Pattens had adjoining 80-acre farms a couple of miles north of Patoka. Their children, John Luther Swanson and Edna Patten were both eleven years old in 1905, so they knew each other, played together and went to the same one-room school house from that time until they were 16. At this time the Swansons moved to Perico, Texas, leaving the Pattens still living in Patoka.

Edna worked as a housekeeper, nurse and babysitter until she was 30. She spent a lot of her time helping her sister, Florence, around her house and taking care of Edgar, Elon and Carl. Upon marrying Luther John, they moved to Perico and stayed there one year. In 1926 they purchased 160 acres of virgin land four miles west of Spade, Texas. Edna suffered from asthma and had a difficult time in the spring and fall. When she needed a winter coat, she would pull enough cotton to pay for it.

The only time I remember Mother crying was the year the floods came and drowned her baby chicks. Daddy scolded her for crying. He said, "If I let these little disasters bother me, I would be crying all the time." She replied, "I feel bad because now we won't have friers for our cold storage locker."

In 1959 they moved down to McAllen, Texas and this made it easier for Mother to breathe. Luther John died of cancer 10 Aug 1968 in McAllen, Texas and Edna died 26 Sep 1971 in Pecos, Texas. They are both buried at the Masonic Cemetery, Littlefield, Texas. They had three sons.

29. Mary Ann Thomson born 12 July 1849. She md John Clark. He was born 25 Oct 1841. He was the grandson of Justus Clark and Sally Read. John served in the Civil War.

Floyd Thomson (32-b-ii) came up with an interesting biography on John Clark and it goes like this:

In July of 1864 there was a political ralley held at the Fairbanks Picnic Grove for George McClellan. There was a large crowd in attendance and much excitement because of the difference of opinion as tohow the Civil War should be conducted. In 1861, Abraham Lincoln had placed McClellan in charge of the Union Armies, but after the battles of Yorktown and Williamsburg, he became very dissatisfied with the manner in which McClellan had conducted the strategic maneuvers, so McClellan was relieved of his command.

This infuriated McClellan and he became a bitter critic of Lincoln. So in 1864, the Democrats encouraged McClellan to run as the Democratic candidate against Lincoln in the next general election. The Democratic platform denounced the war as a failure. So at the grove that day there was much excitement. A speaker was praising McClellan for his stand on the war, being opposed to the hardship created in the nation, both south and north.

Then Amanda Sherman DeBaun, dressed as Mrs. Lincoln, got up on the stand and began immitating her by making statements like Mrs. Lincoln had made during her husband's term of office. Some of the people at the ralley were for the opposing party, such as William Yeager, Charles Shattuck, Jim Bitcher and Matt and Harry Brown. These men were heckling Mandy because of her immitation of Mrs. Lincoln. Some of the Democrats that came to her defense were Henry and John Drake and John Clark. A fight started, and the Republicans were asked to leave.

They were from Prairie Creek, Pimento and Farmersburg. The ralley ended, and the Drake boys and John Clark were on their way home when another fight started. William Yeager was in a wagon and the others were on horseback. Henry Drake's hat was knocked off. As he stooped over to pick it up, he was shot at with a pistol. The bullet missed him, but hit his brother, John, and killed him. John Clark was also hit in the shoulder by a bullet.

At the Court House in Sullivan County, there is a record of the trial of the men who killed John Drake and wounded John Clark. Governor Oliver P. Morton personally stopped the trial and released all of the defendants. Why? Well, prior to this time, Southern Indiana had a lot of people who thought the war should be stopped. They organized themselves into a group called "The Knights of the Golden Circle." Governor Morton was opposed to this group and made every effort to stamp them out. The Governor had been informed, whether right or wrong, that the Drakes and John Clark were members of that society, so that's why he came to Sullivan personally to set the defendnats free.

After this, John Clark and his wife, Mary Ann Thomson, moved to Kansas. He was back on a visit about 1910 and stated at that time that the bullet was still lodged in his shoulder, but gave few details about the incident. Those who knew about the shooting were reluctant to talk about it, and would quickly dismiss the subject.

John and Mary Ann had four children:
a. Alma Clark.
b. Alva Clark (Twins)
c. Lucy Clark.
d. Jesse Clark.

His son Earl wrote this in 1937: "After Mother's departure (31 Aug 1903) I did look after my Dad some. And at last, according to his desire and at his urgent request, we took him to the Soldier's Home in Marion, Indiana where he passed away at the age of 96.

45. William Granville (Stout) Patten born 20 Feb 1858 in Fairbanks. He md Sarah Ann (Sally) McDonald 9 May 1880. She was born 20 Dec 1858 near Shelburn and was the d/o Preston McDonald and Elizabeth Douglas. Right after they got married, the McDonald's moved out to Kansas.

Stout and Sally had Max in 1880. Glenna came along in 1882. In 1883, they also moved to Kansas, settling on a farm near Coyville, Wilson County, which was about fifteen miles north of the McDonalds. Stout was 25 at this time. Pearl was born in 1885. Maud came next in 1887. Then the twins were born in 1889.

Upon the birth of the twins, Sarah Ann developed an inflammatory rheumatism. The McDonalds took her back to their home on a cot. She was in agony if moved, so she was not turned all of those months because of the pain. She died at the home of her parents 29 May 1890.

Now Stout had six little kids on his hands, ages 9, 8, 5, 3 and the two babies. He felt he couldn't provide for the children properly, so he began sending them away. He sent Max and Pearl all alone on the train back to Indiana to live with their grandparents, Isaac Patten, Jr and Mahala Jane. Glenna went to live with Albert and Anna McDonald, her Aunt and Uncle there in Kansas.

During this process, Willie's twin brother died. He permitted Maud to be adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Glasscock in Coyville. Willie went to live with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. Mr. Taylor may have been a lawyer.

As soon as Stout had finished placing the children with these various families, he headed east to Missouri in a wagon and a team of horses. From that time on, the children never received any correspondence from him nor financial aid. He worked in the mines around Webb City and Joplin, Missouri. Then in 1899 he married (2) Gilly May Ashcraft in Webb City. She was 20 years younger than he, and was tall and slender.

Earl described the situation to Glenna in 1936: "He, (Stout) sent Max and Pearl to our mother. I was still home then and we cared for them. Pearl went to stay with her Aunt Jane Frakes, I think, when she was about 14. I lost track of him for 24 years, and since I found him again, I am happy, knowing that he is alive."

When Earl said "Jane Frakes" he didn't mean the Jane Patten who married Alec Frakes. He probably meant Jane Frakes Jones. Stout's first wife Sarah Ann had a brother named Samuel. Samuel was married to Eleanor Frakes. Eleanor had a sister named Jane who married a fellow named Jones. (Is that clear?)

To his union with Gilly May, Grace Patten was born in 1900. In 1901 Max Patten came to live with them while they were residing in Alba, Mo. He was 21 at the time. He stayed with them four or five years. Then in about 1906 he married Libby.

In 1907 Stout, Grace and Gilly May moved to Washington State and they remained there until 1912. Next they lived in Pitcher, Oklahoma which is just south of Joplin. Stout was an engineer in the mines. In 1918, Gilly May died while they were living in Pitcher.

At this time,Grace was attending high school in Columbus, Kansas. She kept house for her dad in the summers until 1921 when her father married(3) Dora Stickens. Grace was disappointed and hurt by this marriage, however, she felt that Dora would be good for her Dad and take care of him.

In 1936, while Stout and Dora were living in Commerce, Oklahoma, Grace taught school in the winters and attended school in the summers. When school was out, she would spend several weeks with her Dad and Stepmother. Grace was five foot tall and weighed 103 pounds; had blue eyes and light hair. Stout remarked that she looked like her Grandmother Patten. When Grace was small, her hair was golden; but then after she had typhoid fever, her hair changed to a light reddish brown. Stout had red hair.

27 Oct 1936, Stout's neighbor wrote this little note to Earl: "I, the neighbor, writing for the Pattens, think you should know they are in very, very straightened circumstances. Mr. Patten wouldn't tell you this, but they can't work and have to have relief in addition to what Grace can do for them. I have helped them as I can, and write all of their letters. Mr. Patten cannot use his writing hand very well, so I do all of their writing."

Dora couldn't read or write, so this neighbor lady helped them out in this regard.

Here is what Earl wrote in 1937 to Max Patten. "I have been writing to your half-sister Grace, who seems to have remained the old maid of the clan. But I just know she must be one of the finest girls in the land. We have her photograph and she looks to me like a very beautiful girl. She is teaching in the Wichita, Kansas schools."

Now let us focus our attention to the children of Stout and Sally and what occurred in their lives from the time they were separated from their mother and father.

Pearl had to go stay with Jane Frakes Jones. In 1900, when she was 15, Pearl visited the old home of her Grandmother Patten. Earl was there with his new bride. Pearl didn't like living with Jane because of the hard work and she resented all of those bad things they said about her mother and father.

So in 1901, at the age of 16, she boarded a train and headed west to see her sister, Glenna, and the rest of the clan in Fredonia, Kansas. She apparently enjoyed being there because she never could get enough money saved to make that trip back to Indiana.

A long time passed, and then she heard through the grapevine that her Grandmother Patten had passed away (she died 31 Aug 1903) but no one had officially notified her of it. After that, she felt that no one cared.

She worked in the homes of various people in that area. And it was while she was thus employed that she met Vernon Stough. After a few months, 12 Feb 1906 when she was 21, they got married. They were great pals all through the years.

They moved to Eastern Kansas, Mound Valley, Labette County. And then having no way to get around except by train, she lost contact with the McDonalds. Vernon was a glassblower by trade. They had five children. After about 11 or 12 years, in 1918, they moved to Wyoming where Vernon worked in the oil fields. Then in 1924, they moved to Grand Junction, Colorado.

They lived on a little farm about two miles from town. Her son Philip worked in the lumber yard. Winnie worked in the telephone office. Her daughter, Elma, moved to California. Helen lived in Grand Mesa and Ernest lived in Leadville, Colorado.

Pearl always remembered when she was little her dear Grandmother Patten sitting on the bench under the old cherry tree, waiting for her son Earl to come home for dinner. Pearl never saw her father since that sad day when he sent her and Max to Indiana. She often wondered what her father looked like. Pearl's two oldest children had red hair, and she felt they might have taken it from the Patten side of the family. Philip was six foot three inches, while Helen was short and small.

Vernon passed away in 1958 of a heart attack. Pearl lived alone for several years. Then after her daughter, Helen, lost her husband, Helen came to live with Pearl. By this time Helen's children were all grown and married, so she felt comfortable moving back with her mother, and she liked it better in Grand Junction than in Grand Mesa.

Pearl and Helen lived in a house belonging to Pearl's son, Philip. In July 1970, Pearl fell and broke her hip and then had a stroke later in the summer. She recovered from both afflictions, and her mind was clear as well as her speech. Her daughter Helen quit work because of her own disabilities and to take care of her mother.

Now let's turn our attention to the rest of the children:

The Glasscock's discouraged Maud from associating with her relatives. At the age of 18, Maud became dissatisfied with her situation, left the Glasscock's and was never heard from again.

As stated before, Willie was raised by the Taylors. Upon gaining his maturity, he married a Fredonia girl and they had a daughter. They moved to Carthage, Mo. and Willie took a job in the mines. One night he kissed his wife and little girl goodby, took his lunchkit and was never heard from again. An extensive search was made of that old mine , but no trace was found of him. It was felt that he had fallen into a deserted mine shaft. His wife is reported to have returned to Fredonia with her child.

Now, let's see what happened to Glenna.

She lived in Kansas with her Aunt and Uncle, Albert and Annie McDonald until she was nine. She would often walk three miles to play with her brother, Willie. In 1891 she moved with her Aunt and Uncle to Eureka Springs, Arkansas, and then to Wolf City, Texas. In 1892 when she was only ten years old, her Aunt and Uncle moved to Washington Territory, but sent Glenna back on the train to Fredonia to live with her Grandparents, Preston and Elizabeth McDonald.

When Glenna was 23, she and her financee decided to get married, so they went to the Court House to fill out the necessary papers. They knew beforehand that they would ask her father's name. The problem was, all they knew was "Stout." She inquired of an aunt, who replied, "Well, I don't know. I think his real name was John." It wasn't until 1937 when she was correspnding with Earl that she learned his name for the first time.

Glenna married William H. Fitch 25 Aug 1905. He was born 28 March 1869 in Illinois. Their farm was just across the line into Oklahoma. William Fitch died 1 April 1945 at Caldwell, Kansas. After this glenna moved into the town of Caldwell. She lived alone until she fell and broke her hip in December of 1967. Then she moved into the Leisure Centre Nursing Home there in Caldwell.

It is interesting to note that Glenna and Pearl kept in touch with each other all of their lives.

Glenna was a member of the Christian Church. She learned that her Mother too, had been a member. Glenna stated that she planned on meeting her mother in Heaven some day. Glenna's daughter, Hazel, did well at their bakery. Max Patten told Glenna that at one time her father had planned to come and see her, but never did; nor did he ever write her. She often wondered if he would be glad to see her or receive a letter from her. She also wondered why they called him "Stout."

Earl said this of him in 1936: He seems to be a mighty smart person, greatly infatuated with his profession."

At the age of 29 he was a junior partner in the firm of Alper, Harutan & Patten. After a short while he went into business by himself, and it continued this way until World War II where he served in the U. S. Army. Upon discharge in 1943 he became Assistant County Attorney of Jasper County, Missouri, working under Roy Coyne, County Attorney. During a period of about four or five years, he lived in Webb City, Missouri.

He ran for County Attorney but was defeated. A partnership was then formed with his old friend Roy Coyne, and they called it Coyne & Patten. In the early 60's this partnership was broken up and Max resumed the private practice of law. He opened up an office right across from City Hall in Joplin.

In 1972 he was appointed County Attorney of Jasper County. After three or four years of this, he retired in about 1976. Max was considered the outstanding trial attorney of the entire southwest part of Missouri, which includes Carthage, Webb City and Joplin.

As a public defender, he represented Manny Doss in 1954. She was accused of poisoning five husbands. They say she would never have been convicted if she hadn't given her consent for an autopsy. Because of this case, the legislature passed the "Manny Doss Bill" which provides that if there is probable cause, an autopsy can be taken with or without the spouse's consent.

Patten, who had a drug and grocery business in Shelburn. In 1882 this store was destroyed by fire, so Earl went to work for Robert Lynn. Two years later, he went to work for his brother again, and this time it was a general merchandising store. Earl continued this employment until 4 June 1892 when he enlisted in the Army.

He was assigned to teach the trumpeters. Earl played the coronet. 25 Nov 1892 he was given the permanent assignment of Field Musician with the 15th Regiment of Infantry at Fort Sheridan, Ill. which is located near Chicago. In 1893 he qualified as sharpshooter, and he considered this achievement as the most outstanding feature of his short military career.

He was honorably discharged 4 June 1894. Upon returning to Shelburn, he began working for John Patten again as a salesman and bookkeeper until 31 Dec 1902.

He didn't marry until his 30th birthday. He had known Mayme Banister all of her life. She was 23 years old when they married New Years Day 1900. She was born 22 Jan 1877. In 1902 he went into partnership with Harry Banister in the clothing business under the trade name of Patten & Banister. This only lasted a year. In June of 1905 he opened up a grocery store, which he then sold to Isaac Woodsmall.

In 1905 Earl was elected to the office of Clerk and Treasurer, taking office 1 Jan 1906, and retiring therefrom in 1910. During this period, Shelburn reached a population of 2500. They enjoyed great prosperity. Several new coal mines were put into operation. The town erected a new school house and a new horse-drawn fire apparatus was purchased, and the beginning of a sewer system was laid out along West Mill Street.

25 July 1905 he obtained employment with the Kettle Creek Mining Company and worked at their mines near Shelburn in the capacity of bookkeeper. And then in 1908 he was promoted to Superintendent of Mines. December 1910 he left Kettle Creek and went to work for the Grant Coal & Mining Company at Burnett, Indiana, taking charge of their mercantile department. He moved over to Burnett and then a little later on, to Terre Haute.

Finally, he handed in his resignation 30 June 1911. He left because he didn't like the town of Burnett and because he wanted to go to work for Hulman & Company, manufacturers and wholesalers of general merchandise. He became their traveling salesman and his territory consisted of Eastern Illinois. He stayed with this company for ten years, at which time he and his family decided to move back to Shelburn. In 1920 he accepted the appointment of Postmaster at Shelburn and stayed with that until 1923, when a Republican succeeded him.

In 1923 he began working as a weighmaster for the Peabody Coal Company. At times when the mines were idle, he engaged in house-painting and repair work. They moved to Terre Haute in 1932. Then two years later, Richard Kirk, his son-in-law, leased some coal lands east of Shelburn and organized a company. Earl assisted in the building of the tipple and other structures that were required. This mine was located at the junction of Hulman Street and the CM and St. Paul Railroad.

In 1937 Earl began working for the Indiana Gas & Chemical Corporation as a watchman. He was a Mason and a member of the Christian Church.

Just a short time before his death in 1940 he wrote, "This work (compiling the genealogy) has been a lot of entertainment for me during my idle hours. I am getting this history up for the special benefit of my little grandson. By the time I get all the data on his father's side from England, as far back as they can trace it, then I will leave him quite a volume of ancestral information."

In 1936, Earl was suffering from asthma and bronchitis, and not able to work. Of his wife, Mayme, he said, "I can't begin to tell you how happy we have been in our married life. While Mayme was most kind and sweet in her girlhood days, I think she grows kinder and sweeter as the years roll by. Our good daughter is an exact duplicate of her mother, being lovely, lovable and loving to her parents, her husband, her little son and kind toward everyone else."

Earl died 30 June 1940 and is buried at Terre Haute.

The family moved to Tennessee in 1896 in two wagons, one of which was driven by a cousin, Joe Bilyew, the son of Hannah Sankey Bilyew (see 51-b)

The Rich family when they moved to Tennessee

Joe Douglas Hattie Ray Mabel Stella Fannie Adah Ethel

Douglas was thinking he could sell the timber from the Tennessee land when the railroad came through. Also he did not realize that the farm land there was as poor as it was, because the owner had bought corn and filled his cribs to make the farm look prosperous. So when the railroad did not materialize, the family was left in poor shape. Things were so bad at one time that Estella said she kept going to the garden to dig for a potato after she thought they had all been dug, and when she found more, she felt God had worked a miracle. Their eighth child, Nellie, was born in Tennessee.
